We provide this information for your convenience in planning and packing for the upcoming camp. Our prayer for you, whether you are an observer, a volunteer/counselor, or a participant in the camp activities for the week, is that you will experience spiritual growth, make new friends, and have a safe, pleasant, and restful time in the Lord.

Travel & Accommodations

If you are an Adult attending or volunteering at camp, here are a few things to consider:

Cost

If you are just “attending” (not working) camp, there is a $250 fee per person

If you are volunteering to work at the camp, serving where needed, there is no camp fee (however, staying in a Camp “hotel-type” room would still cost $100)

If you are volunteering as a Counselor, staying in the dorms with the kids, you do not have to pay a camp fee

Travel

Apache Creek Ranch is a minimum 4-hour drive from Santa Fe. Stopping for food, gas, and/or rest along the way adds to the travel time.

Adults need to provide their own transportation. The van is full of campers. We need a van driver and a trailer for luggage and supplies.

Pastor Craig recommends that volunteers arrive the day before to get situated before camp starts.

Accommodations Options

Public hotel rooms in Reserve, NM, approximately 18 miles southwest of Apache Creek Ranch: Secure at your own expense, based on availability

Apache Creek Ranch “hotel-type” room: $100 for the week for up to two people

Shared cabins: bunk beds for up to 10 people per cabin (included with registration fee and free for volunteers)

Dorms for Youth Campers: Bunk bed for volunteers (you need to bring your own bedding)
